

Korea-Japan Joint Symposium “Minimally invasive surgery of colorectal cancer”

Date: November 13th (Fri) 15 : 00~17 : 30

Venue: Room 5 (名古屋観光ホテル 3F 桂)

Chairpersons: Department of Surgery, Kyorin University, Japan

Tadahiko Masaki

Seoul National University, Seoul, Korea (Chairman of the Board of Regent, KSCP) Kyu-Joo Park

Session 1 : Laparoscopic surgery

KJS-1 Laparoscopic surgery for colorectal cancer in Japan: Results of clinical trials and clinical researches

Division of Gastrointestinal Surgery, Hiratsuka City Hospital, Japan

Seiichiro Yamamoto

KJS-2 Laparoscopic Surgery for Colorectal Cancer: Settled vs Unsettled Issues

Seoul National University Bundang Hospital, Seoul, Korea

Sung-Bum Kang

Session 2 : Single port surgery / NOTES

KJS-3 Single port surgery / Minimally invasive Surgery

Department of Gastroenterological Surgery, Graduate School of Medicine, Osaka University, Osaka, Japan

Ichiro Takemasa

KJS-4 Single port surgery and NOTES for Colorectal cancer

Sungkunkwan University School of Medicine, Seoul, Korea

Seong-Hyeon Yun

Session 3 : Robotic surgery

KJS-5 Robotic Rectal Cancer Surgery in Shizuoka Cancer Center

Colon and Rectal Surgery, Shizuoka Cancer Center Hospital, Japan

Yusuke Kinugasa

KJS-6 Current status of robotic surgery for colorectal cancer

Colorectal Cancer Center, Kyungpook National University Hospital, School of Medicine, Kyungpook National University, Daegu, Korea

Gyu-Seog Choi

The European Society of Coloproctology (ESCP) Fellowship Presentation

Date: November 13th (Fri) 14 : 10~14 : 25

Venue: Room 1 (名古屋観光ホテル 3F 那古 (東中))

Chairperson: Department of Surgery, National Defense Medical College

Kazuo Hase

ESCP Outcomes of pelvic exenteration in the treatment of primary rectal cancer

Department of Colorectal Surgery, St David's House, Sancta Maria Hospital, Swansea, United Kingdom

Martyn Dominic Evans