5. Program Book

Please pick up the program book at the registration desk. You could also check the same contents and abstracts on the congress website. In order to log in the abstracts, you are requested to type the password.

6. Wordly (Live AI Translation & Captioning)

AI-powered translation, Wordly, will be introduced in this congress.

Wordly translates the statements of the chairs and speakers in the session room into the languages of your choice in real time and allows you to read them on your smartphone, tablet or other smart device.

Wordly will be available in the sessions marked with a W on the program-at-a-glance. You will find a QR code in each session room, which you can scan with your smart devices and select your preferred translation languages.

For on-demand, only the original language will be streamed and Wordly is not supported. There is no subtitle translation, either.

7. Luncheon Seminar

During the lunchtime of the congress period, there are several sponsored luncheon seminars. The participants could pick up the lunchboxes at the session rooms and listen to the seminars. Several sponsored luncheon seminars are held in English, so please join any sponsored luncheon seminar, which you are interested in.
