

Dear Colleagues,

It is my great pleasure to invite you all to attend the upcoming 13th Symposium for the Japanese Scandinavian Radiological Society (JSRS) and 16th Nordic Japan Imaging Informatics Symposium. The conference will be held in one of the most beautiful city of Sapporo, Japan, from 10-12th June 2020. June is the best season for visiting Sapporo though most part of Japan is in rainy season (Baiu). The city also enjoys an excellent transport links from major airports in Japan.

The local committee has just started preparing for the meeting and making the meeting interesting and impressive. We are looking forward to seeing you in Sapporo in June 2020.
