

Prof. Serge Ferrari, MD

Head of the Clinical Services and Research Laboratory of Bone Diseases at the Geneva University Hospital (Switzerland). Vice-Dean for translational research and innovation at the Geneva Faculty of Medicine. President of the Swiss Alliance against Osteoporosis and immediate past president of the Swiss Association Against Osteoporosis. Past Chair of the Committee of Scientific Advisors (CSA) and Chair of diabetes and bone working group at the International Osteoporosis Foundation (IOF). Recipient of the IOF Olaf Johnell science award (2016), ECTS Steven Boonen award (2014), and ASBMR Larry Raisz award (2022). Former Editor-in-Chief of BoneKey. Main research interests: Mechanisms of bone fragility; Treatment targets and molecular mechanisms of action of bone drugs. Published over 300 articles and book chapters in the field of osteoporosis and bone and mineral metabolism.